M M = ♩ 60

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with a 2/4 time signature, containing five measures of whole rests. The middle and bottom staves are grouped by a brace on the left, indicating a piano accompaniment. The middle staff begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking. It contains five measures of music, with the first two measures featuring complex, overlapping sixteenth-note patterns in the right hand and sustained chords in the left hand. The third measure has a whole rest in the right hand and a half note in the left. The fourth and fifth measures continue the pattern of sixteenth-note runs in the right hand and sustained chords in the left.

The second system of musical notation also consists of three staves. The top staff is a single treble clef staff with a 2/4 time signature, containing five measures of whole rests. The middle and bottom staves are grouped by a brace on the left. The middle staff contains five measures of music, primarily consisting of sustained chords in the right hand. The bottom staff contains five measures of music, primarily consisting of sustained chords in the left hand. The final measure of the system shows a more active right hand with eighth-note patterns.

The third system of musical notation consists of four staves, all of which contain five measures of whole rests. This system appears to be a placeholder or a section where the music is not present in this version of the score.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The top staff contains five measures of music, featuring eighth-note patterns in the right hand and sustained chords in the left. The bottom staff contains five measures of music, primarily consisting of sustained chords in the left hand. The final measure of the system shows a more active right hand with eighth-note patterns.
